SMALL-POX IN MACON.

Last Wednesday evening Alvin Cecil, brother of the Presbyterian minister of Macon, a young man of about 25 years, was taken sick, and the doctor on being called, diagnosed his case as typho-malarial fever, of a malignant form. A lot of young friends tendered their services as nurses up to and including Saturday night. Sunday morning, visited the physicians, Drs. Huff and Kyner, who found they found him "beautifully broken out" with small-pox. They immediately informed Mayor Brooks, who convened the city council in extraordinary session at W. R. Whitaker's store.

Before the council met, however, it was known that O. H. Draper, grocer, had varioloid, and that his partner, D. W. Alkinson, was complaining. Next it was discovered that a farm laborer named Jackson, who was stopping temporarily at the Baby House, was broken out with small-pox, and the excitement became intense. Divine services were held in the M. E. Church at 10 o'clock, prior to the discovery of the epidemic, but afternoon Sunday School was prohibited, as was also preaching at night.

The city council was anxious to do their duty, but a great diversity of opinion among the members as to the proper action to be taken, for several hours neutralized their well-meant intentions. Committees were appointed to secure a site for the location of a pest house and to secure an estimate of the lumber and other material necessary, but Sunday passed off without anything being definitely settled, except resolving that a pest house should be built as soon as possible, and it is probable that before this item reaches the public it will be erected and the patients removed to it. Every doctor yesterday was busily engaged in vaccinating men, women and children; the public schools have been closed; flags have been displayed at two residences and at the hotel, and fumigation, disinfecting, and every other known precaution has been taken to prevent its spread.

Several families left Macon Sunday afternoon, and a few parties boarded the train this morning, among others, C. N. Walls, of the Independent, who has gone to Edgar county with his family to see his mother-in-law. The small-pox broke out across the street from the Independent office, and that paper will not appear this week. The excitement among the Maconites this morning was not as strong as yesterday, probably because the streets are not thronged so numerous as yesterday, and it is to be hoped no more cases will break out.

JACK SAUNDERS has put down his name as one of the stockholders of the Bramble Lock Factory to be located in this city. The committee has been offered a number of desirable locations upon which to erect the factory, but as yet no property has been engaged. This matter will be definitely settled probably during the present week. The men at the head of this enterprise have an abundance of cash, so there will be no lack of capital to make the business boom when it is fairly under way.

A party of young vandals distinguished themselves last night by disturbing the religious meeting in progress at the Church of God. The boys went into the lobby and turned off the gas repentantly. It is fortunate for the devilish lads that their names are unknown. They ought to be presented and severely punished.

Arrived in New York.

The following brief telegram was received in this city this morning:

New York, March 5, 82.
To Isaac Shellenbarger, Decatur, Ill.: Just arrived. All well. R. W. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke and son are expected to arrive here on Wednesday or Thursday next. Miss Fannie Shellenbarger and her sister, Mrs. Laura Hunt, are still at Rome, Italy, with Mr. Hale and wife, of Chicago. They will not return home until July.

Glass Blowers Gone.

This forenoon the 1st Jan Glass Blowers, under the management of C. M. King, departed for Macon, where they will begin a week's engagement to-morrow night. Their nine lives in the Carter building during the past week were very successful, the attendance each afternoon and evening being so large that people left early to avoid the crush, and get fresh air. The Bohemians were liberal as princes in distributing beautiful gifts to visitors. The parties connected with this popular attraction are all perfect gentlemen, and will receive a cordial welcome should they ever return to our city.

Birthday Parties.

The anniversary of the birth of our popular collector, Capt. J. A. Barnes, occurred on Friday last, and he was made the victim of a visitation of a surprise party at his home on West William street that evening. The general Captain was wholly unaware of the intended invasion. Mrs. Barnes keeping the secret from her husband. Among those who filled the cheerful rooms of the dwelling were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster, Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cloyd, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Tamm, Mr. and Mrs. John Quinlan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. P. Loebl, J. C. Hostetler and S. L. Barnes. The evening was devoted to pleasant conversation, various games, and the discussion of fine refreshments, served party fashion. It was a very pleasant affair, and was richly enjoyed by all.

Our county physician, Dr. H. J. Weyl, had a birthday anniversary on Saturday, and during the evening a score or more of German friends called at his home to help him celebrate.

The senior member of the firm of Clapp & Jones, of St. Louis, pump manufacturers, arrived in the city to-day, and will visit the waterworks to take measurements for the new pump.

On Saturday evening last, a red leather pocket book containing between twenty and twenty-five dollars. A suitable reward will be paid if left at D. H. Heilman's grocery store, or for its return to W. B. McDaniel, 37 1/2 miles southeast of Harris-ton.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Samuel Lemaster is clerking at E. Houston's furniture store.

Hugh Crea is expected home from New York to-night or to-morrow.

Miss James Winslow and Miss Mary Hall, of Warrensburg, were the guests of Mrs. Dr. J. N. Randall on Saturday.

Robert L. Hockaday, the Mt. Zion hotel proprietor, was in the city this morning on business.

Theo. D. Hincheliffe, of St. Louis, spent Sunday in Decatur with his friend, P. H. Brueck.

Mrs. Andrew Dempsey, nee Annie Moffett, is in the city, visiting relatives and friends.

George I. Harry was the leader at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, and Wm. Glover presided at the organ. "Testimony" was the interesting theme.

Dr. W. J. Chlenoweth was called to Alton to-day on professional business. He left for that place on the early train this morning.

Harl P. Christie, who is at Chelsea, Mass., favors us with a fine lot of picture cards illustrating incidents in the life of an active freeman.

Michael Dempsey, of the U. S. postal service, was on the sick list yesterday, and Allen Lytle took his place on the car, going to St. Louis.

Jacob Swartz, of Macon, was in the city to-day. He will return home this evening, as will also several other Maconites who came up from the town this morning.

John Cassell, of this city, has been allowed $4 a month pension since June, 1865, and the money is at his disposal. Mr. Cassell served three years in the 107th Ill. Vol. He got his certificate from Miss Sweet to-day.

Col. Geo. H. Woods will leave here for Cincinnati, O., to-morrow, to take charge of his interest in the grain business there. His many friends will regret this change and be glad to welcome him back to resume business here next fall, as he is now anticipates.

J. A. Barnes, secretary of the Macon County Veterans Association, has received notice from D. L. Kent & Co., at East Dorset, Vt., that they have prepared by order of the government the headstones to mark the graves of the dead soldiers buried in this county. Kent & Co. write that they are making every possible effort to deliver the stones at Decatur on or before next Decoration Day, May 30th.

Albert Staines, one of Decatur's professional colored artists, who has been traveling with Jack Haverley's colored minstrels, arrived home this morning and paid his respects to the REPUBLICAN office. Al. during the past season has been doing specialty business before the alluring footlights, and has a good wad of cash to show as the result of his late tour between Chicago, New York and Boston. He will linger here until Saturday, when he will return to Chicago.

They Need Hanging

Last evening an unknown party of men, by using powder to blow off the lock, got into a hand-car house near the "Purpin switch," east of the Illinois Midland junction, and took therefrom a heavy "push hauler." This the men placed upon the car being upon the main track. They then used a lot of rope, chains and spikes to fasten the car securely to the track, and then disappeared to await results. The intention was to wreck and plunder the first passenger train on the P. D. & E. or Midland route that passed along the line, but no passenger trains run over that road on Sunday. Fortunately, before any freight train came along the obstruction was discovered by a section foreman, who, with the assistance of a number of men he summoned to his aid, removed the hand-car and reported to the officials the state of affairs. Every effort possible will be made to apprehend and punish the parties who stole the car and spiked it to the track.

One of the important matters to come before the city council at the meeting to-night, will be a petition from President Prior for permission to extend the street railway track south from the New Denning hotel across the old square past the St. Nicholas Hotel to Wood street. There ought not to be any objection to this important improvement of benefit to the traveling public and the public generally, and no doubt the prayer of the petitioner will be granted. The iron for the proposed extension is now in the city ready for use.

Dedicated to Hon. J. S. Cannon

Our former fellow townsman, the versatile John W. Payne, Jr., now a clerk in the census office at the National Capital, has distinguished himself again, this time in a poetic way. On Saturday evening we received from Washington by mail two copies of a piece of sheet music, with the compliments of the author. The title page reads thusly:

A TRIBUTE FROM THE CENSUS OFFICE TO "THE BELL SINGS ONLY TOFF."

And song sung in sorrow by a Nation of sorrowing Subjects.

Written and arranged for the piano, voice, and most respectfully inscribed to HON. JOSEPH S. CANNON, U. S. OF D. C.

By his friend, JOHN W. PAYNE, JR.

Published by J. F. Ellis & Co., 37 Penn. Avenue, Washington, D. C. Copyright secured.

There are five stanzas in this sad song on the death of President Garfield. The air is "That Little German Home Across the Sea." It is a touching production and reflects credit on the author, who was no slouch in the line of writing trade songs when in this city.

Master's Sales.

On Saturday afternoon, at a Master's sale in front of the court house, a frame dwelling house containing four rooms and two lots on South Broadway, near the corner of Clay street, were sold to Mr. Frank Myers for $1080. The bidding was spirited. Mr. Brown being offered $5 and $10 at a clip.

Mr. Brown also sold 40 acres of timber land near Rosely to Mr. Henry Bishop for $1150.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

A FINE CONCERT.

The original New Orleans University Jubilee troupe, which is composed of a double quartette of vocalists and an accomplished lady organist, sang in the tabernacle last Saturday evening before a large audience, made up chiefly of christian people. The concert was given for the benefit of the bell fund of the 1st M. E. church, and the proceeds for the church footed up about $155. The concert opened with a chant of the Lord's Prayer, when the following selections were rendered: "I'm Rolling Through an Unfriendly World," "Clipping of the Angel's Wings," solo, "Waiting," "Angels Meet Me at the Cross Roads," "Roll a' and Rock a' dem in his a' Arms," "In the Morning by the Bright Light," "Old Ark is Moving," exodus song, "We Are Going," "Laughing Song," "Walk Jerusalem just like Bob," "Josh Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Shouting in the Kingdom," "The Swanee River," "Gospel Train," and "General Roll Call." The audience showed its appreciation of the singers by repeated enthusiastic applause, and all went home well pleased with the concert. Sunday evening the colored singers were at the 1st M. E. church, where they sang sacred selections during the services.

THE PHILHARMONICS.

To-morrow evening the home concert of the season will be given at the tabernacle by the members of the Philharmonic Society, under the direction of Professor Lutz. This we are assured will be a fine musical treat. Let there be a large audience present. Admission, 50 and 30 cents, and no extra charge for reserved seats.

OSCAR WILDE.

This great one man aesthetic curiosity of the day will positively fill his engagement to lecture in the opera house in this city on Wednesday evening next, March 8th, but as the crop of big sunflowers and tender lilies is rather limited in this section at present, there will be no display of the Oscar chambers on the stage, only the gentle Oscar in his queer dress, and nothing more. The subject of the lecture will be "Art Decoration." Admission, 50 and 75 cents; reserved seats, $1.00.

CARLETON MURRAY.

For three nights in succession, commencing on Thursday evening, March 9, the Carleton-Murray dramatic and comedy combination will appear before the footlights at the opera house. See advertisement. Popular prices.

OSCAR CHASE.

A business meeting of the stockholders of the recently incorporated "American Vapor Store Company" was held at the factory on East Main street to-day, when the following persons were elected officers: President—Theo. A. Gehrmann. Vice President—Charles H. Brown. Secretary and Treasurer—H. H. Brown. Edward Jameson and Joseph Shaffer, together with the gentlemen above-named, constitute the board of directors.

REMARKABLE.

Linn & Scruggs have furnished with carpets nearly every new house in Decatur within the last five years—and sold more carpets last year than was ever sold in Decatur in one year.

The Daily Republican.

DECATUR, ILL., MARCH 9, 1882.

What He Wrote.

"B." the Macon county correspondent of the Private Farmer, wrote as follows to that agricultural journal under date of Feb. 24: "The biggest storm this year commenced on the 18th. It rained till the 21st, doing a great deal of damage. Has not been any mail here for four days. Ground now frozen up as hard as it has been this winter. Water has settled away very fast. Everything is very high. Stock is selling at $3.55; hogs, $1.25 to $1.30; cows, $4.50 to $5; hogs, about $6.50; corn, 44c; wheat, $1.15; fat hogs, 6c."

PROMPT ACTION.

What Was Done at the Called Meeting of the Wheatland Board of Health.

At a meeting of the board of health of the town of South Wheatland, the following business was transacted.

On motion it was ordered that all persons who have not been vaccinated recently, be vaccinated immediately, the fees to be paid out of the town funds when the individual is unable to pay them.

Ordered that all persons who have recently been exposed to small-pox—any such persons feeling sick or unwell—are ordered by the board to remain at their homes and entirely isolated till it is determined what their disease is.

Ordered that the public school at Elwin be closed for two weeks from this date.

Ordered that public notice be placed immediately on all houses that are infected with small-pox, and such houses be renovated and disinfected.

Ordered that no public gatherings in the vicinity of Elwin be held for the space of two weeks from this date.

We, the board of health, request the citizens of this vicinity to aid us in carrying out the above precautions to prevent the spread of small-pox.

HENRY WARD, Supervisor.

Geo. CONWARD, Town Clerk.

Noah JACOBS, Assessor.

Spring Time Has Come.

And with it came one of the handsomest line of Millinery Goods at Mrs. K. K. Einsteins ever shown in Decatur, such as new styles of Bonnets and Hats, for ladies and children, and the handsomest line of Flowers ever shown. I have also made an engagement with one of the most skillful milliners that could be found in Chicago, where she now is getting all the new styles, and will arrive here in about two weeks. Call and see me at No. 28 East Main street, Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. K. K. EINSTEIN.

N. B. Our dressmaking department is now in full blast. Miss Maggie Walsh is our lady.

Popping the Question.

Constitutionally timid men might, if necessary, resort to some such expedient as that of the youth whose bashfulness would not admit of his proposing directly to the object of his affections, but who at length, summed up sufficient courage to say: "This young lady's cut is just what I need, may I have your cut?" To which the young lady very naturally and cleverly responded: "Say yes."

Bashfulness on the part of lovers, and want of courage in the question, have formed the subject of many a story. Here is one: A gentleman had long been paying attention to a young lady whom he was very anxious to marry, but to whom he had never ventured to declare his passion. When opportunity offered, his courage deserted him, and when he was resolved to speak the fair one never could be found alone or disengaged. Driven to desperation, he one day succeeded in accomplishing his purpose in a somewhat remarkable manner at a dinner party. To most people a dinner party would hardly seem the most suitable occasion for overtures of this description, especially when, as in this instance, the lady is seated at the opposite side of the table from her admirer. The latter, however, was equal to the occasion. Tearing a leaf from his pocket book, he wrote on it, under cover of the table: "Will you be my wife?" Write yes or not at the foot of this." Calling a servant, he asked him in a whisper to take the slip, which, of course, was carefully folded and directed—to "the lady in blue opposite." The servant did as requested, and the gentleman, in an agony of suspense, watched him give it to the lady, and fixed his eyes, with badly disguised eagerness, to try and judge from her expression how the quaintly made offer was received. He had forgotten one thing—namely, that ladies seldom carry pencils about them at a dinner party. The beloved one was, however, not to be baffled by so trifling an obstacle. After reading the note calmly, she turned to the servant and said: "Tell the gentleman yes." They were married in due course.—Chambers Journal.

How to Report a Wedding.

Country Journal.

"I say," said the reporter, "I don't know whether this is right."

"Don't know whether what is right?" demanded the city editor.

"This wedding. I went there to night, and they gave me a heap of rot about their frocks; but I don't know whether it comes out straight or not. Now, here is Mrs. —"

"I've got her in a panner silk, trimmed a la gros grain, with black point lace underskirt and box plaited lace. Does that sound natural?"

"Who sent you to a wedding?" asked the city editor, contemptuously.

"Don't you know that gros grain is a color? That was a gros grain, box plaited dress, trimmed a la black point lace, and her hair was combed on panner. You ought to know better than to get things mixed that way. Who else did you get? How was the bride dressed?"

"I've got her all right," replied the West End reporter. "She wore a white bouffant, with a Princess of Thule veil; the underskirt cut decollete around the bottom, and trimmed with a basque at the sides."

"That's better," said the city editor, encouragingly. "That sounds like it. How was her hair?"

"Her hair was shirred," replied the West End reporter. "Shirred at the sides and corsaged on top."

"I don't believe that's right," objected the city editor. "Read that again."

"It was corsaged at the sides and shirred on top," said the West End reporter, referring to his notes.

"Of course," smiled the city editor. "It makes all the difference in the world. You never saw a woman with her hair corsaged on top in your life."
